Winery Spotlight: Rockford

Each drop tells a unique story that the winemaker has expressed from the very positioning of the vines, up until the first sip. One boutique winery that stands out from most has well-earned its legendary reputation – Rockford.

Located in Tanunda, the beating heart of the Barossa, Rockford has been turning tastebuds since the 1980's. Back then, land was much more affordable, so anyone looking to make a living off of wine were presented with such an opportunity. Founder and owner, Robert O'Callaghan, purchased the property to which Rockford resides today. Robert connected with local grape growers, purchased winemaking equipment and commenced his Rockford winemaking journey.
